

WSLD XXXV Registration Open!

The Rio Grande Region of Narcotics Anonymous invites you to this year's Western Service Learning Days!

We will be hosting this event October 21-24, 2021 at The Albuquerque Airport Sheraton in person. Registration is open and our program committee is in the process of selecting workshop speakers. If you would like to be considered as a workshop presenter please think about registering as soon as possible.

Some of the things we are planning include: a reception Thursday night, 2 Professional Panels on Friday, a full day of service workshops on Saturday, Main Speaker Meeting, and a Sunday NAWS update. The list of proposed topics is on wslld.org website.

Go to wslld.org and scroll down below the logo for a link to registration. When you follow that link there are tabs merchandise, program, registration, and a button to reserve a room at the Albuquerque Airport Sheraton. If you have any concerns or questions please email wslld2021abq@gmail.com

The Greater Albuquerque Area of Narcotics Anonymous is hosting this year's event in Albuquerque, New Mexico October 21-24, 2021, at the Albuquerque Airport Sheraton.

Thursday, October 21 will have an evening reception with snacks to welcome participants from out of town. We are in negotiations with the hotel as to the cost for food.

Friday, October 22 will be Professional's Day. Professionals including counselors, drug treatment administrators, police department liaisons, and the city of Albuquerque Mayor's office will be joining us for panel discussions.

Saturday and Sunday will include workshops relating to Hospitals and Institutions (H&I), Public Relations (PR), technology tools for virtual and/or hybrid events, NA World Service office, and Spanish-speaking workshops in those categories.
